	14-2-2006 Shri Sameer Sahu, counsel for the petitioners. Shri P.S. Koshy, Dy. Advocate General for the State of Chhattisgarh. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the matter relates to compassionate appointment. He further submits that the names of both the petitioners are mentioned in the order dated 13-9-2004 (Annexure-P/1), therefore, he has filed joint petition. He also submits that Annexure-P/2 is the decision, which was taken by the State of Madhya Pradesh, pursuant to that the petitioners are entitled for compassionate appointment. Learned counsel submits that for the present the petitioners may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law. Prayer is not opposed by the State counsel. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioners to make detailed representations raising their grievances individually before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of this order within a period of three weeks from today, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioners may avail the remedy available under the law including filing of petitions. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. Certified copy as per rules. Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge
